Theme:

Data Driven Decision Making (DDDM) in Facilities:

How is your organization making high level decisions using data? The practice of analysis of data rather than decisions based purely on intuition is gaining traction in Facilities. The playing field is changing and this discussion will look at trends specifically at Total Cost of Ownership, Sustainability, Procurement and Facilities Management.

Topic Areas Will Include:

- Metrics for measuring sustainability and how to interact with staff and students to accomplish your institutional goals.
- Strategic Sourcing and how data drives the discussion from a financial spend lens. Cost savings have to be balanced with performance on long term fiscal goals. What are the metrics Used and how will it be measured in the future?

- Total Cost of Ownership Update - APPA and ANSI initiative to develop a Total Cost of Ownership model that drives facility decisions.
- Panel Discussion: How DDDM is driving Education to higher ground.
