

2015-2016

APPA Institutional Membership Application

Membership categories are based on your institution type. Please read the descriptions carefully to ensure that you choose the appropriate membership category. The APPA membership year runs from April 1st through March 31st.

Institutional

Institutional membership is open to:

- All colleges and universities with their own facilities department and administrator.
- Higher education system offices, K-12, and International schools.
- Libraries and Museums

One individual is named as the Institutional Representative and is the principal contact between APPA and the institution. Other facilities department staff can join as Associate members. An unlimited number of Associates are included in the cost of dues.

Dues

Dues for colleges and universities located within the U.S. and Canada are based on an institution's full-time equivalent student enrollment and gross institutional expenditures (see matrix on next page.) Additional Associates may be added at no cost to the institution.

See the next page for dues requirements of other eligible institutions, to include those outside of the U.S. and Canada, K-12 schools, system offices, libraries, and museums.

Benefits

- Access to a rich network of 10,000 facilities professionals.
- Subscriptions to Facilities Manager magazine.
