FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bryn Mawr College's Smith Lauded for Contributions to Educational Facilities Industry

August 7, 2015, Alexandria, VA – APPA is pleased to announce the designation Glenn Smith, Director of Facilities Services for Bryn Mawr College, as an APPA Fellow.

“Glenn has been a leader among the APPA membership for several years,” said Paul Wuebold, APPA’s Vice President, Professional Affairs, and the chair of the Awards and Recognition Committee. “He came to educational facilities after spending more than two decades with the Naval Civil Engineer Corps. Glenn’s tireless pursuit of excellence and continued spirit of service have earned him APPA’s highest individual achievement award. It is a privilege to work with such a dedicated professional.”

APPA Fellows must be an active member of APPA, with at least ten years of membership; complete APPA’s Institute for Facilities Management; complete the APPA Leadership Academy; complete a research project under APPA’s Center for Facilities Research; prepare an article accepted for publication by APPA; and have references from colleagues in the educational facilities profession that can speak to the Fellow’s successes and dedication to the educational facilities profession. Fellows are recognized not only for the past accomplishments, but also for expected future involvement in research and mentoring within the field.

Smith has been a leader within APPA, serving as chapter president of Delaware Valley APPA, president of the Eastern Region of APPA (ERAPPA), a member of the APPA board, dean of the Leadership Academy, APPA Vice President for Professional Development, and APPA President.

The award was presented at the APPA 2015 Annual Conference in Chicago, August 4-6.
