

1643 Prince Street
Alexandria, VA 22314
703.684.1446
www.appa.org

Contact: Trish St. Michel
202.276.2874, trish@appa.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPA Honors Four for Lifelong Contributions

July 24, 2014, Alexandria, Va. – APPA is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2014 Meritorious Service Award, APPA’s highest award for individual service: Don Guckert, University of Iowa; Tom Harkenrider, Soka University of America; Marion Bracy, Xavier University of Louisiana; and Jay Klingel, University of Virginia.

Each honoree is being recognized for years of participation and service to APPA and the field of facilities management for education institutions.

“The strength of APPA – and, truly, the whole profession of facilities management – is built upon the leadership and service of its members to the organization and to each other,” said David Cain, APPA’s Immediate Past Vice President, Professional Affairs, and the chair of the Awards and Recognition Committee. “This is just one way APPA can say ‘Thank you’ for years of significant contributions by our members.”

To be eligible for nomination, individuals must have been an active member of APPA for a minimum of ten consecutive years; attended and participated in meetings and other functions at the international level; and demonstrated continued and distinguished service to the association.

Award recipients were recognized during the 2014 APPA Annual Conference and 100th Anniversary celebration in San Diego, July 21-23, 2014.

####

APPA promotes leadership in educational facilities for professionals seeking to build their careers, transform their institutions, and elevate the value and recognition of facilities in education. APPA is the association of choice for more than 10,000 educational facilities professionals from 1,300 educational institutions in North America. www.appa.org

1643 Prince Street
Alexandria, VA 22314
703.684.1446
www.appa.org

Contact: Trish St. Michel
202.276.2874, trish@appa.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPA Honors Four for Lifelong Contributions

July 24, 2014, Alexandria, Va. – APPA is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2014 Meritorious Service Award, APPA’s highest award for individual service: Tom Harkenrider, Soka University of America; Marion Bracy, Xavier University of Louisiana; Jay Klingel, University of Virginia; and Don Guckert, University of Iowa.

Each honoree is being recognized for years of participation and service to APPA and the field of facilities management for education institutions.

“The strength of APPA – and, truly, the whole profession of facilities management – is built upon the leadership and service of its members to the organization and to each other,” said David Cain, APPA’s Immediate Past Vice President, Professional Affairs, and the chair of the Awards and Recognition Committee. “This is just one way APPA can say ‘Thank you’ for years of significant contributions by our members.”

To be eligible for nomination, individuals must have been an active member of APPA for a minimum of ten consecutive years; attended and participated in meetings and other functions at the international level; and demonstrated continued and distinguished service to the association.

Award recipients were recognized during the 2014 APPA Annual Conference and 100th Anniversary celebration in San Diego, July 21-23, 2014.

####

APPA promotes leadership in educational facilities for professionals seeking to build their careers, transform their institutions, and elevate the value and recognition of facilities in education. APPA is the association of choice for more than 10,000 educational facilities professionals from 1,300 educational institutions in North America. www.appa.org

1643 Prince Street
Alexandria, VA 22314
703.684.1446
www.appa.org

Contact: Trish St. Michel
202.276.2874, trish@appa.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPA Honors Four for Lifelong Contributions

July 24, 2014, Alexandria, Va. – APPA is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2014 Meritorious Service Award, APPA’s highest award for individual service: Marion Bracy, Xavier University of Louisiana; Jay Klingel, University of Virginia; Don Guckert, University of Iowa; and Tom Harkenrider, Soka University of America.

Each honoree is being recognized for years of participation and service to APPA and the field of facilities management for education institutions.

“The strength of APPA – and, truly, the whole profession of facilities management – is built upon the leadership and service of its members to the organization and to each other,” said David Cain, APPA’s Immediate Past Vice President, Professional Affairs, and the chair of the Awards and Recognition Committee. “This is just one way APPA can say ‘Thank you’ for years of significant contributions by our members.”

To be eligible for nomination, individuals must have been an active member of APPA for a minimum of ten consecutive years; attended and participated in meetings and other functions at the international level; and demonstrated continued and distinguished service to the association.

Award recipients were recognized during the 2014 APPA Annual Conference and 100th Anniversary celebration in San Diego, July 21-23, 2014.

####

APPA promotes leadership in educational facilities for professionals seeking to build their careers, transform their institutions, and elevate the value and recognition of facilities in education. APPA is the association of choice for more than 10,000 educational facilities professionals from 1,300 educational institutions in North America. www.appa.org

1643 Prince Street
Alexandria, VA 22314
703.684.1446
www.appa.org

Contact: Trish St. Michel
202.276.2874, trish@appa.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPA Honors Four for Lifelong Contributions

July 24, 2014, Alexandria, Va. – APPA is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2014 Meritorious Service Award, APPA’s highest award for individual service: Jay Klingel, University of Virginia; Don Guckert, University of Iowa; Tom Harkenrider, Soka University of America; and Marion Bracy, Xavier University of Louisiana.

Each honoree is being recognized for years of participation and service to APPA and the field of facilities management for education institutions.

“The strength of APPA – and, truly, the whole profession of facilities management – is built upon the leadership and service of its members to the organization and to each other,” said David Cain, APPA’s Immediate Past Vice President, Professional Affairs, and the chair of the Awards and Recognition Committee. “This is just one way APPA can say ‘Thank you’ for years of significant contributions by our members.”

To be eligible for nomination, individuals must have been an active member of APPA for a minimum of ten consecutive years; attended and participated in meetings and other functions at the international level; and demonstrated continued and distinguished service to the association.

Award recipients were recognized during the 2014 APPA Annual Conference and 100th Anniversary celebration in San Diego, July 21-23, 2014.

####

APPA promotes leadership in educational facilities for professionals seeking to build their careers, transform their institutions, and elevate the value and recognition of facilities in education. APPA is the association of choice for more than 10,000 educational facilities professionals from 1,300 educational institutions in North America. www.appa.org