The Why: The Perspectives from Student Affairs

WHERE I BELONG

If this is true...

The purpose of college is to gain connections, skills, and experiences to elevate one's potential for desired success that they otherwise would not have had

WHERE I BELONG

This must also be true!

Colleges facilitate an environment where students are safe and capable to engage in all that it has to offer

Why Wellbeing?

- Wellbeing is a priority for students, educators, and campus leaders across the US; students are leading the way by demanding support inclusive of all their needs.
- Aspects of wellbeing are interconnected; academic achievement and performance are outcomes of student wellbeing.
- Behavioral patterns established in the teens and early 20s often persist throughout life; setting the tone for holistic wellbeing in college puts students on an upward trajectory.

Dimensions of Wellbeing

- Wellness wheel was developed by Dr. Bill Hettler in 1976.
- Aspects of wellbeing are interconnected; academic achievement and performance are outcomes of student wellbeing.
- Not just about giving students “amenities”, but helping them meet real needs.

The Role of Facilities

Student needs are changing, the campus environment must adapt to them.

Key Themes across 50+ Interviews

Barriers

Outdated space standards

Increasing deferred maintenance backlog

Lack of connectivity between facilities and student affairs

Opportunities

“Guerilla” style or low-cost implementation ideas

Increased tools to align space to operational objectives

Integration of curriculum into the built environment

The nontraditional spaces

Using Virtual Reality in Higher Education

- Virtual reality is being used outside of higher education for a variety of purposes beyond gaming
- As an option, it requires
 - Financial resources
 - Staff oversight
 - Student interest
 - Physical space

Setting Up: Space and Security

- Collaborate with student activities or offices of student engagement
- Space is dependent on number of VR sets
 - Prioritize aesthetic
 - Ambient noise
 - VR usage requires floor boundary
- Consider a peer resource
- “OneCard” Integration
 - Security
 - Scheduling
 - Contact Tracing if needed
